The attempted assassination of Supreme Court Justice Kavanaugh by a left wing lunatic, which happened today, is currently the 15th lead story on @nytimes website. The 15th! If a right winger tried to kill a liberal justice we'd hear about it for years. Kavanaugh? Barely a day.

Inflation is in effect a hidden tax. The money that people have saved is robbed of part of its purchasing power, which is quietly transferred to the government that issues new money.

Kids are naturally curious. Give them books, they'll read.

Somehow, public schools often stamp out that curiosity, and replace it with indoctrination. Huge problem — and more money won't fix it.

Lmmm yeah so you see "others" civil rights come with many automatic qualifiers i.e. straight, white, male. There are others who are forced to not only defend their rights but actually advocate for themselves to be treated as an "equal" human being. # gbtq especially, in France already the 'emperor has no clothes' (former French army guy went in UKR for charity saw the nazy, the Bucha stage the likes)

@bgmasters
Sure like that works. what do you propose ? Let Russia take @Ukraine ? Let them continue to bomb indiscriminately? Seriously curious Obviously the whole world pre war asking Russia not to didn't work sanctions didn't work So what's your fix ?

Charles Cooper @coopsimms
@bgmasters @DeAna27245502
Hi @bgmasters here is how they are spending the $40B

> Charles Cooper @coopsimms
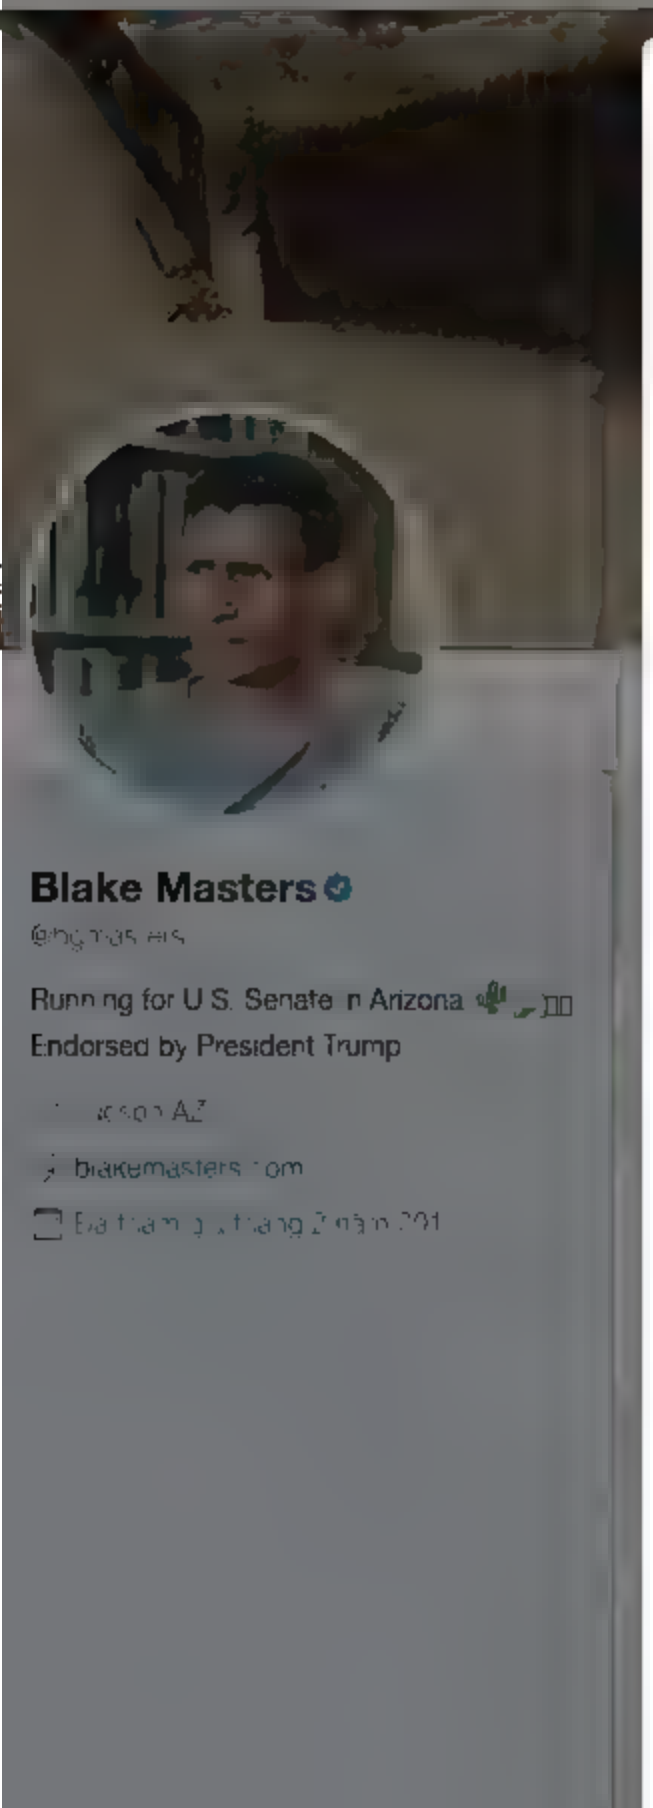
> @coopsimms @ColumbiaBeagle
> The new measure includes
> • $6 billion to arm and train Ukrainian forces
> • $8.7 billion to restore American stores of weapons shipped to Ukraine
> • $3.9 billion for U.S. forces deployed to the area



Jimmy Darangus III @jimgusbarnes
that leaves over 20 billion for kick backs and grift

Paul Tree @PaulTree10
So your theory is what, Lockheed Martin tricked Putin into invading Ukraine?

Tim Blair @timstour
@bgmasters
I don't propose giving Ukraine to Russia but if any money goes to Ukraine it should be tracked and audited fully and not be laundered

Hypocrisy Now @Hypocrisy45
Maybe we should start with Afghanistan and Iraq, because there's over a trillion dollars that's unaccounted for in those 2 wars

Of course it's the opposite, as I've said time and time again: there's an epidemic of useless college degrees, and many of these schools prey on students who would be better off not going to college at all and instead train to enter the workforce with actual skills.

I think you said that college degrees focusing on STEM are useful while the rest are not. You have been very consistent on your overall stance for college education, which is the only place where I partially agree/disagree with you. I think we can take them back.

It wasn't designed for hunting

It is designed to kill people

But if you are not a "bad guy" I support your right to own it

They are legally required to, it was a measure put in place because of aggressive smear campaigns that politicians would pay for but not personally endorse. The idea is that this makes it harder for them to throw shit without getting it on their own hands.

As Attorney General, Mark Brnovich was supposed to protect Arizonans against fraud — turns out, he's been misleading voters and scamming donors by implying that he has President Trump's support. Yikes.

Negative campaigning has real costs. It turns people off. Early in the race, @RichardGrenell endorsed one of my opponents, Jim Lamon. Then Jim started spending millions smearing me. That was a huge red flag for many, including Ric — and now I'm thrilled to have his support.

BLAKE MASTERS

FOR U.S. SENATE

For immediate release
Tuesday, July 5, 2022

CONTACT: press@blakemasters.com

KASH PATEL AND AMBASSADOR RIC GRENELL ENDORSE BLAKE MASTERS FOR U.S. SENATE

TUCSON, AZ— U.S. Senate candidate Blake Masters has received the endorsement of Former Chief of Staff to the Department of Defense Kash Patel and Ambassador Ric Grenell. Grenell had previously supported Masters' primary opponent Jim Lamon but withdrew his support over Lamon's negative and false campaign ads attacking Masters and other conservatives.

Patel and Grenell put out this joint statement:

"We had the honor of working in President Trump's Administration. We know what America First looks like, and what kind of person is needed in Washington, DC to fight against the swamp. We are proud to join Donald J. Trump in endorsing Blake Masters, a real America First patriot. Blake is already focused on Democrat Mark Kelly in November. He is traveling Arizona talking about the border crisis, Joe Biden's disastrous economy, high gas prices, and the Left's takeover of our schools. We are confident that Blake Masters knows the threats that America faces, and he has the talent and the vision to take them on. That is why he has our complete endorsement."

Blake Masters responded:

"When it comes to putting America First, Kash and Ric know what they're talking about. I'm honored to have their support. Republicans shouldn't be wasting their money attacking one another. We literally can't afford it; Kelly is going to be one of the most well-funded Democrats this cycle. He is the extension of the corrupt and despicable Clinton-Obama-Biden machine. It's time for conservatives to unite so that we can kick Mark Kelly out of the Senate in November."

The Arizona Republican primary will be held on August 2, 2022.

This reconciliation bill isn't about a budget.

It's about mass amnesty for illegal immigrants and unlimited cheap labor for big corporations.

I offer an alternative. Share plans for skills-based training in data, cloud computing, and emergent scripting languages like Rust and Solidity for Americans, specifically post K-12 and those caught in the quicksand of a backwards growing industry. The country needs vision here.

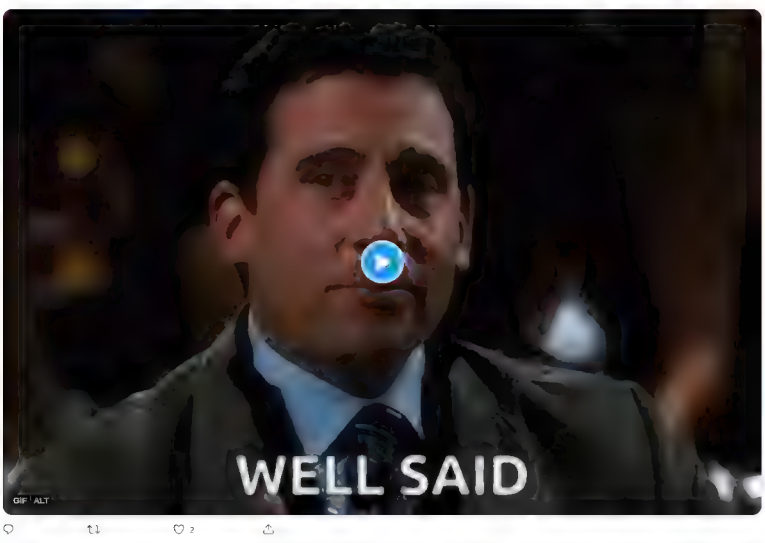
YouTube just removed this video, they said it "violates our Community Guidelines."



So here it is, let's see what Twitter does. The 2020 election wasn't free or fair. And Brnovich clearly didn't want President Trump to win.

Blake Masters Retweeted

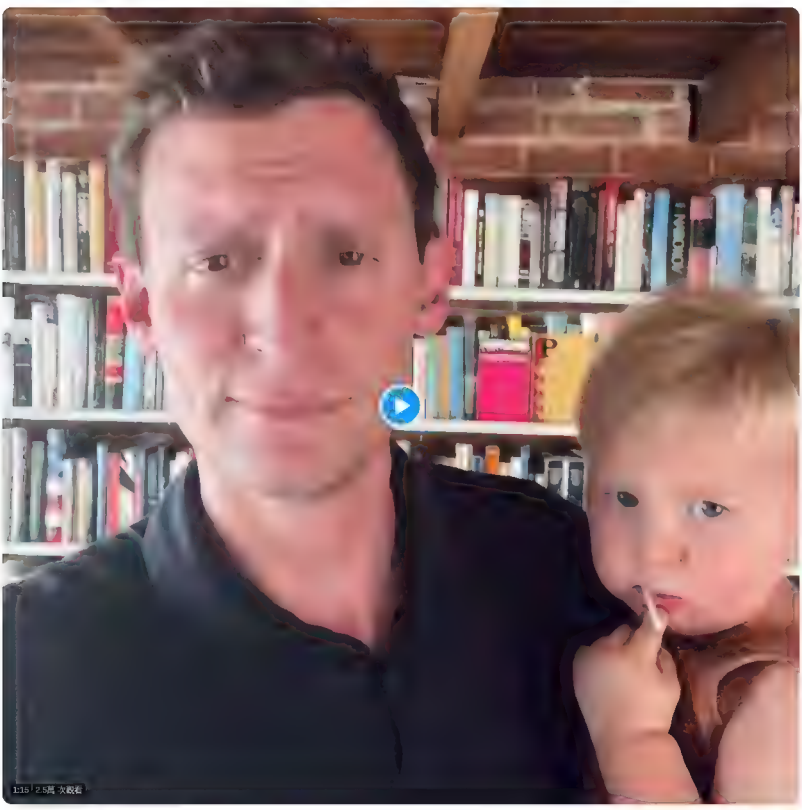
Andrew Surabian
@Surabees

In a 24 hour period, both CNN and The New York Times have dropped hit pieces on Blake Masters.

The obviously coordinated smear campaign by the establishment media is the biggest signal of all that @bgmasters is the right candidate for Senate in Arizona.



Vote accordingly #AZSen

So here it is, let's see what Twitter does. The 2020 election wasn't free or fair. And Brnovich clearly didn't want President Trump to win.

They are legally required to, it was a measure put in place because of aggressive smear campaigns that politicians would pay for but not personally endorse. The idea is that this makes it harder for them to throw shit without getting it on their own hands.

Statement regarding the Arizona Mirror

States Newsroom is committed to embodying the values of diversity, equity, inclusion and justice, and we ask readers to hold us accountable. Earlier today, we became aware of offensive tweets containing hateful slurs from 2011 and 2012 made by a recently hired reporter. After authenticating the tweets, the reporter was immediately terminated.

Collin was a best friend growing up. He told me about the famous class where I met Peter Thiel, and he was best man at my wedding.

The most deadly virus we face is progressivism, it rots both brains and nations. I wish Collin well — but freedom is worth losing friends over.

Collin was a best friend growing up. He told me about the famous class where I met Peter Thiel, and he was best man at my wedding.

The most deadly virus we face is progressivism, it rots both brains and nations. I wish Collin well — but freedom is worth losing friends over.

Collin was a best friend growing up. He told me about the famous class where I met Peter Thiel, and he was best man at my wedding.

The most deadly virus we face is progressivism, it rots both brains and nations. I wish Collin well — but freedom is worth losing friends over.

Collin was a best friend growing up. He told me about the famous class where I met Peter Thiel, and he was best man at my wedding.

The most deadly virus we face is progressivism, it rots both brains and nations. I wish Collin well — but freedom is worth losing friends over.

Joe Biden has failed. Senator Mark Kelly has failed. They have nothing to run on. So Kelly will lie and pretend to be independent — it's not going to work.

Collin was a best friend growing up. He told me about the famous class where I met Peter Thiel, and he was best man at my wedding.

The most deadly virus we face is progressivism, it rots both brains and nations. I wish Collin well — but freedom is worth losing friends over.

I've been in office for a month & nothing is what it seems. Many bills are titled differently, but have nothing to do with what it entails, very common practice by the far left to deceive voters. Lots of theatrics & emotion over substance & policy. Single issue bills is a must.

In Griswold, the justices wholesale made up a constitutional right to achieve a political outcome. I am opposed to judges making law. It's the job of the legislative branch to create laws, not the courts. This is separation of powers 101.

So you DO think Griswold should be overturned? A ruling that struck down a law "that prohibited any person from using any drug, medicinal article or instrument for the purpose of preventing conception" IOW, you do not support pplis right to privacy to use contraception Got it

Hey @DillonReedRose you are a hack. This piece wildly misrepresents my views, which was your goal. Time for a thread about journalistic ethics & the way reporters shamelessly attack anyone to the right of AOC.

Let's be clear about this: you didn't ask for comment. Not really. You wrote to the wrong email address for my campaign manager despite knowing her correct email (so we wouldn't see it in time), and then published your hit piece 90 minutes later. You weasel.

89 · 893 · 3,854

Blake Masters @bgmasters · May 7
Had you gone about this ethically & had you written to our real email address more than an hour before publishing, I would have said (and let's see if you update your story and quote me):

I am pro-life. And of course I don't think contraceptives should be outlawed.

In Griswold, the justices wholesale made up a constitutional right to achieve a political outcome. I am opposed to judges making law. It's the job of the legislative branch to create laws, not the courts. This is separation of powers 101.

Either this "reporter" does not understand how our legal system works (and so cannot separate the outcome of a case from the legal reasoning behind a decision) or he's a fake news journalist with an axe to grind. My money's on both, actually!

But hey, on the bright side, the media has realized that unlimited abortion on demand is a political loser for the Dems. So they've started doing what they do best: throwing ethics out the window, baselessly smearing Republicans, and calling it "fact checking"

48 · 196 · 1,696

Blake Masters @bgmasters · May 7
They did this to President Trump, they did it to Justice Kavanaugh, they will do it to random cake bakers, they did it to Tucker last week, they're doing it to me as a candidate, and you're up next. This is why no one trusts the media anymore.

We need Republicans who won't run scared when the corrupt media establishment tries to intimidate them. That's why I'm running for US Senate, because the time for kowtowing to these people is over. We will fight and we will win. Blakemasters.com

So do you think Griswold should be overturned so states would have the legal authority to ban contraception? This is a pretty simple yes or no question but you managed to make an entire thread of tweets without a direct answer.

4 · 1 · 47

The Angry Internet @Angry_Internet · May 7
Also if you do think Griswold should be overturned, would you support a federal law (or if necessary, a constitutional amendment) guaranteeing access to contraception? Seems weird to insist an issue should be left to legislators without specifying how you would legislate on it.

The New York Times is brain dead. Hispanic voters hate illegal immigration and crime more than anybody.

Pushing an Immigration Conspiracy Theory, While Courting Latinos

Blake Masters, a top candidate in Arizona's Republican primary for the Senate, has accused Democrats of plotting to "import" new voters. That poses a challenge in a state where a third of the voters are Hispanic.

And NYT helpfully consults "anti-extremism experts" to try to explain Biden's extreme, radical policy of presiding over a violent open border with hundreds of thousands of illegal aliens flooding in monthly. You can't make this stuff up.

The New York Times is brain dead. Hispanic voters hate illegal immigration and crime more than anybody

Pushing an Immigration Conspiracy Theory, While Courting Latinos

Blake Masters, a top candidate in Arizona's Republican primary for the Senate, has accused Democrats of plotting to "import" new voters. That poses a challenge in a state where a third of the voters are Hispanic.

And NYT helpfully consults "anti-extremism experts" to try to explain Biden's extreme, radical policy of presiding over a violent open border with hundreds of thousands of illegal aliens flooding in monthly. You can't make this stuff up.

Things the NY Times finds more important than an armed 22-year-old heroically stopping a mass murder in an Indiana mall:

1. British heatwave
2. Wind Turbines in Spain
3. Colleges Students' Access to Abortion Pills

Alas, it is not. U.S. citizens (or green card holders) only, per U.S. campaign finance laws

I will try to think of something fun for foreign / international friends of Zero to One in coming days. It just can't help my campaign at all.

A 17 year old white supremacist domestic terrorist drove across state lines, armed with an AR 15.

He shot and killed 2 people who had assembled to affirm the value, dignity, and worth of Black lives.

Every part of the prosecution's case was built on lies and deception. The claimed Joseph Rosenbaum, a serial child rapist, wasn't reaching for Kyle's gun when eyewitnesses and video evidence both showed otherwise.

Sinema caved and joined the rest of the Democrats. But isn't it interesting how everyone was wondering what she was going to do?

Mark Kelly's vote, by contrast, was never in question. You never had to wonder. He does whatever Joe Biden and Chuck Schumer tell him to. Rubber stamp

Thanks to Mark Kelly, Arizonans don't have a secure border, a healthy economy, or safe streets.

By contrast, look at everything Ron DeSantis has done to keep Florida strong, safe, and free. Looking forward to welcoming Gov. DeSantis to Phoenix on Sunday

Sinema keeps you guessing at least. Mark Kelly is just a Democrat lemming.

Blake Masters @bgmasters Aug 7

Sinema caved and joined the rest of the Democrats. But isn't it interesting how everyone was wondering what she was going to do?

Mark Kelly's vote, by contrast, was never in question. You never had to wonder. He does whatever Joe Biden and Chuck Schumer tell him to. Rubber stamp

Sinema keeps you guessing at least. Mark Kelly is just a Democrat lemming.

Blake Masters @bgmasters · ۸ اوت

Sinema caved and joined the rest of the Democrats. But isn't it interesting how everyone was wondering what she was going to do?

Mark Kelly's vote, by contrast, was never in question. You never had to wonder. He does whatever Joe Biden and Chuck Schumer tell him to. Rubber stamp.

Sinema caved and joined the rest of the Democrats. But isn't it interesting how everyone was wondering what she was going to do?

Mark Kelly's vote, by contrast, was never in question. You never had to wonder. He does whatever Joe Biden and Chuck Schumer tell him to. Rubber stamp.

Why isn't Mark Kelly saying anything??? Is he concerned about the politicization of the DOJ? About Joe Biden persecuting his political opposition? As usual, silence from Mark Kelly, as he helps drag the country further in the wrong direction

Happy Birthday to Catherine, the love of my life. The most amazing wife and mother. Raising and homeschooling 3 boys isn't easy! Now throw in supporting a husband running for Senate — it can be brutal, but she is so strong. I don't deserve her but I'm thrilled she's mine.

If you're wondering why Democrats just voted for 87,000 new IRS agents to audit Americans who make less than $200k, Kamala Harris here explains it very clearly and carefully

RNC Research @RNCResearch 5h

KAMALA HARRIS "Equity as a concept says recognize that everyone has the same capacity, but in order for them to have equal opportunity to reach that capacity, well, we must pay attention to this issue of equity"

Mark Kelly talks like a "safe legal and rare" moderate. Then he votes like a "shout your abortion" shrieking millennial activist.

Remember: this guy voted for unlimited abortion on demand up until the moment of birth! Ghastly.

There have now been 86 TSDB hits so far in FY'22.

That's more than double the previous 5 years combined.

Small businesses are the driving force of our economy in Arizona, but the last couple of years haven't been easy. Supporting them is key to getting our economy back on track—and that's exactly what I'm doing in the Senate.

I run a small business. I am not worried about extra IRS agents, as I hire another small business (CPA) to do my taxes. And, properly staffing the IRS will save me time when I need to contact them.

Small businesses are the driving force of our economy in Arizona, but the last couple of years haven't been easy. Supporting them is key to getting our economy back on track — and that's exactly what I'm doing in the Senate.

I run a small business. I am not worried about extra IRS agents as I hire another small business (CPA) to do my taxes. And, properly staffing the IRS will save me time when I need to contact them.

Well if you did your homework you'd know most of the new IRS agents are just replacing ones that are leaving or are about to retire. Also Americas tax base is getting bigger so more agents makes sense

I run a small business. I am not worried about extra IRS agents as I hire another small business (CPA) to do my taxes. And, properly staffing the IRS will save me time when I need to contact them

I propose to the @CaptMarkKelly camp that we do 4 debates: 2 in September and 2 in October. I'll make myself available. Looking forward to Senator Kelly trying to defend his record of giving Joe Biden everything he wants.

We are completely serious when we say: they are coming for your children.

Kids are going to die. And Mark Kelly & Joe Biden are going to keep pretending that an open border has no victims

The Democrats in charge have completely failed. Mark Kelly's vote belongs to Joe Biden. Time for a Senator who actually fights for American families.

In a practical sense how does one senator complete the tasks you outlined in this ad? and also isn't a border wall a redundancy re 5x patrol increase with additional drone tech? Or is the staff/tech increase an admission of the wall's likely ineffectiveness?

Elfi Wittig @EWitt · ١١ يونيو

If barriers were ineffective no stadium, amusement park, or any other fee venue would have walls or fences to keep people out. and no prison asylum etc would have them to keep people in.

Senator Mark Kelly heard about 20,000 potential new Border Patrol agents and said nope, no thanks, not for me.

Then he heard about 87,000 new IRS agents and said great, yes please, we need THAT

That's funny, because I've talked to most of the Republican Senators at this point — none of them thinks Mark Kelly is particularly hardworking, and all of them want him gone.

The Biden Administration pushing "gender-affirming care" for children — including genital surgery and puberty blockers — is truly dystopian.

And Senator Mark Kelly going along with it? Refusing to speak up and protect our kids? Pathetic.

In a practical sense how does one senator complete the tasks you outlined in this ad? and also isn't a border wall a redundancy re 5x patrol increase with additional drone tech? Or is the staff/tech increase an admission of the wall's likely ineffectiveness?

If barriers were ineffective no stadium, amusement park, or any other for fee venue would have walls or fences to keep people out and no prison asylum etc would have them to keep people in

The thing that confuses me: crime is rampant (Tucker tonight) and it's being excused. Why? This is going to lead to a backlash with more money than ever spent on law enforcement. There will be more prisons and more police in the end. Is that why? Or, does society collapse first?

You need to do an ad like @KariLake did, where she hammers a bunch of TV's, but instead have things that resemble America and the American dream on fire, and you come in as a firefighter putting out the fires Biden and Kelly have been burning. An ad as bold and blunt as Kari's.

Every part of the prosecution's case was built on lies and deception. The claimed Joseph Rosenbaum, a serial child rapist, wasn't reaching for Kyle's gun when eyewitnesses and video evidence both showed otherwise

In a practical sense how does one senator complete the tasks you outlined in this ad? and also isn't a border wall a redundancy requiring 5x patrol increase with additional drone tech? Or is the staff/tech increase an admission of the wall's likely ineffectiveness?

If barriers were ineffective no stadium, amusement park, or any other for fee venue would have walls or fences to keep people out and no prison asylum etc would have them to keep people in

PROTECT BABIES, DON'T LET THEM BE KILLED

I am 100% pro-life. Roe v. Wade was a horrible decision. It was wrong the day it was decided in 1973, it's wrong today, and it must be reversed. But the fight doesn't stop there. In the U.S. Senate I will:

- Support the Hyde Amendment, ensuring that no taxpayer funds ever fund abortions
- Strip funding from Planned Parenthood and other abortionists, and any organization that promotes abortion
- Remove funding for any research that uses embryonic stem cells or aborted fetal remains
- Support a federal personhood law (clearly a Constitutional amendment) that recognizes that unborn babies are human beings that may not be killed
- Support the Pain-Capable Unborn Child Protection Act, the Born Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act, the SAVE Moms and Babies Act, and other pro-life legislation
- Vote only for federal judges who understand that Roe and Casey were wrongly decided, and that there is no constitutional right to abortion

As a Catholic and a father of 3 beautiful boys, I know that life is sacred. The right to life is guaranteed by our founding documents, and we will fight to defend it.

The Democrats lie about my views on abortion, because their candidate's position is so extreme. Mark Kelly believes in nationwide abortion on-demand up until the moment of birth, with zero limits. That is truly shocking. 90% of Americans disagree with Mark Kelly's radical position.

I believe that Roe v. Wade was a bad decision, and Dobbs returned the power where it belongs: to the state legislatures and to the people. I am hopeful we'll soon see a slate of new laws that respect and promote life — the lives of both the mother and the child.

In the U.S. Senate I will:

- Support the Hyde Amendment, ensuring that no taxpayer funds ever fund abortions
- Strip taxpayer funding from Planned Parenthood
- Support a law or a Constitutional amendment that bans late term (third trimester) abortion and partial-birth abortion at the federal level
- Support pro-life legislation, pregnancy centers, and programs that make it easier for pregnant women to support a family and decide to choose life

Only China and North Korea support the extreme no-limits abortion policies that Senator Mark Kelly supports. By banning extreme late-term abortion and otherwise letting states decide how to handle the issue, we would further protect life and put ourselves on par with all other civilized countries.

Every part of the prosecution's case was built on lies and deception. The claimed Joseph Rosenbaum, a serial child rapist, wasn't reaching for Kyle's gun when eyewitnesses and video evidence both showed otherwise.

Blake Masters @bgmasters
US Senate candidate, AZ

They called Kyle a "coward" for not using his fists against his attackers, including an attacker about to shoot him in the head with a handgun.

They claimed Kyle had no right to self defense simply because he had a gun. They said that, when the mob overtook Kyle as he fled toward police, his legal duty was to lie down and be executed.

Thomas Binger, the lead prosecutor in Kyle Rittenhouse's homicide trial, said Mr. Rittenhouse lost the right to claim self defense when he brought a military-style semiautomatic weapon to Kenosha.

There were reports of potential jurors being filmed before the trial even started, and activists have been threatening the jury to issue a guilty verdict or else.

Cori Bush, Joe Biden, Ayanna Pressley, Joy Reid, and others maliciously defamed Kyle with the intention of denying him a fair trial. They called him a "white supremacist" and "domestic terrorist," without any evidence.

Blake Masters @bgmasters

Built it went beyond defamation. GoFundMe blocked legal defense fundraisers for Kyle. So did Facebook. Later, when he raised the money through GiveSendGo, we saw organized efforts to dox and harm ordinary people who donated to his defense.

When lies like this run rampant w/o consequence, a republic like ours can't survive. When a society celebrates Antifa looters, arsonists, and pedophiles as heroes, while turning brave people like Kyle Rittenhouse into villains, it is a society that is not long for this world.

I wish all republicans would go this route. We shouldn't be extreme on either side! To say no abortion is wrong but to say no limits is also wrong. Republicans should stay in the middle where most people are on this!!

Yeah except they're not. There's a sizable portion of the primary base that will settle for nothing less than full bans. Republicans are going to have some pain for some time on this after shamelessly using it as a wedge issue to divide people for decades

I wish all republicans would go this route. We shouldn't be extreme on either side! To say no abortion is wrong but to say no limits is also wrong. Republicans should stay in the middle where most people are on this!!

Yeah except they're not. There's a sizable portion of the primary base that will settle for nothing less than full bans. Republicans are going to have some pain for some time on this after shamelessly using it as a wedge issue to divide people for decades

Mark Kelly is lying about my views on abortion — the Democrats have to do that because their own position (no limits of any kind, ever) is so extreme. Here's the truth.

Government has no right to make that call

Who do you think is seeking an abortion at 30 weeks?

Do you think it's because they choose to, they just decide they're done with it?

No, it's because of some horrific medical situation for which doctors and patients need every option

GOP Senate candidate Blake Masters wants to allow states to ban contraception use

BY: DILLON ROSENBLATT - MAY 6, 2022 4:52 PM

14 · 43 · 451

Blake Masters, a Tucson-based venture capitalist, boasts on his website that he will only vote to confirm federal judges "who understand that Roe and Griswold and Casey were wrongly decided, and that there is no constitutional right to abortion." Roe v. Wade and Planned Parenthood v. Casey, decided in 1973 and 1992, respectively, both upheld a constitutional right to abortion access.

But the ruling in Griswold v. Connecticut in 1965 protected a married couple's right to buy and use contraceptives without government restrictions. The case centered on a Connecticut law that banned the use of contraceptives, which the court determined violated a married couple's constitutional right to privacy, establishing the basis for the right to privacy with respect to intimate practices.

Maybe he's worried about trying to defend his undying support for Joe Biden's agenda, 87k IRS agents, and skyrocketing fentanyl deaths?

Mr. I'm opposed to abortion until my moral compass interferes with my election chances. Let's hear it for malleable convictions! They helped me convince my mom and aunt to vote for your opponent😉

PROTECT BABIES, DON'T LET THEM BE KILLED

I am 100% pro-life. Roe v. Wade was a horrible decision. It was wrong the day it was decided in 1973, it's wrong today, and it must be reversed. But the fight doesn't stop there. In the U.S. Senate I will:

- Support the Hyde Amendment, ensuring that no taxpayer funds ever fund abortions
- Strip funding from Planned Parenthood, all other abortionists, and any organization that promotes abortion
- Remove funding for any research that uses embryonic stem cells or aborted fetal remains
- Support a federal personhood law (ideally a Constitutional amendment) that recognizes that unborn babies are human beings that may not be killed
- Support the Pain-Capable Unborn Child Protection Act, the Born Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act, the SAVE Moms and Babies Act, and other pro-life legislation
- Vote only for federal judges who understand that Roe and Casey were wrongly decided, and that there is no constitutional right to abortion

As a Catholic and a father of 3 beautiful boys, I know that life is sacred. The right to life is guaranteed by our founding documents, and we will fight to defend it.

The Democrats lie about my views on abortion because their candidate's position is so extreme. Mark Kelly believes in nationwide abortion-on-demand up until the moment of birth, with zero limits. That is truly shocking. 90% of Americans disagree with Mark Kelly's radical position.

I believe that Roe v. Wade was a bad decision, and Dobbs returned the power where it belongs: to the state legislatures and to the people. I am hopeful we'll soon see a slate of new laws that respect and promote life — the lives of both the mother and the child.

In the U.S. Senate I will:

- Support the Hyde Amendment, ensuring that no taxpayer funds ever fund abortions
- Strip taxpayer funding from Planned Parenthood
- Support a law or a Constitutional amendment that bans late-term (third trimester) abortion and partial-birth abortion at the federal level
- Support pro-life legislation, pregnancy centers, and programs that make it easier for pregnant women to support a family and decide to choose life

Only China and North Korea support the extreme no-limits abortion policies that Senator Mark Kelly supports. By banning extreme late-term abortion and otherwise letting states decide how to handle the issue, we would further protect life and put ourselves on par with all other civilized countries.

Does the same correlation between diversity and success exist n the startup phase?
